Summer 2020 Growth Intern

Till is a rapidly growing, venture backed startup that innovates financial products for residential rental communities. By partnering with landlords, Till transforms resident’s ability to pay, stay, and thrive in their communities.

The growth intern will gain hands on revenue generation experience by:

• Developing target partner lists
• Qualifying targets
• Testing outbound sales strategies
• Improving a CRM system
• Integrating feedback into marketing collateral
• Creating data visualizations

Position Summary:

• Title: Growth Intern
• Location: Washington, D.C.
• Length: 5-8 weeks
• Reports to: Partner Success Manager
• Internship fulfills the requirements for Wake Forest Center for Entrepreneurship stipend and School of Business Internship

Qualifications:

• We look for all team members to be A-players in their respective role, leaders, intellectually curious, communicative, relentlessly resourceful, and results oriented
• Excellence through education, work, and/or extracurriculars
• Strong track record taking projects from zero to one with extreme ownership for good or bad results
• Lifelong learner who strives to improve their craft and expand their interests
• Strong sense of adventure and humor
• A passion for financial inclusion, fintech, and proptech

Desired prerequisite skill set:

• Strong written, verbal, and presentation skills
• Working knowledge of Excel

Start-up environment: A high level of autonomy, resourcefulness and ownership is required to be successful. Roles and responsibilities can evolve as fast as you can.

If interested, please email arthur@hellotill.com with your name, LinkedIn address, resume, and your five favorite apps.